Due to a diminishing supply of drugs, dealers start cutting the drugs with whatever is available. The high level of metal in the tainted drugs cost you your life.

You lose.

Quote

No man can be ignorant that he must die, nor be sure that he may not this very day.

Marcus Tullius Cicero (106-43 BC)
Roman philosopher

Death Card #1

You crash your car while driving under the influence. The accident leaves you paralyzed. You can communicate only by blinking your eyes.

You lose.

Quote

Don't wait for the last judgment. It happens every day.

Albert Camus (1913-1960)
French novelist

Death Card #2

Your excessive drinking has caused Korsakoff’s syndrome. You can’t remember the present or the past and can no longer take care of yourself. There is no treatment and you will spend the rest of your life being cared for—a burden to your family and society.

You lose.

Quote

Drink and you know not whence you came nor why. Drink and you know not why you go nor where.

Omar Khayyam (11th century)
poet

Death Card #3

You overdose. You pass out and die in your own vomit.

You lose.

Quote

For what is life? It is even a vapor, that appears for a little time and then vanishes away.

The Bible, James 4:14

Death Card #4
You overdose and damage much of your brain. You will be in a vegetative coma for the rest of your life. You are a burden on your family and society for years to come.

You lose.

Quote

Life is an incurable disease.

Abraham Cowley (1618-1667)

Author

Due to excessive drug use you lose touch with reality and hallucinate wildly that everyone is out to get you. You are committed to an asylum as hopelessly insane.

You lose.

Proverb

Fools and madmen ought not be left in their own company.

Death Card #6

Due to your extensive drug use, you have flashbacks and hallucinate that you can fly. You jump off a cliff and die a slow death from internal injuries.

You lose.

Quote

All hope abandon ye who enter.

Dante Alighieri (1265-1321)

Italian poet

A drug deal goes bad, you are shot to death along with your infant son who is in the car with you.

You lose.

Quote

*Goodbye, proud world…
Thou art not my friend, and I’m not thine.*

Ralph Waldo Emerson (1803-1882)

Poet
